

Emerging Insights: First-Year PhD Students' Progress

PhD Social Sciences for Sustainability and Wellbeing

October 21, 2024

10.00-16.00, Room Bracco, Building D6, First floor

Please note the following:

- Each PhD student will have to upload (and check) his/her .ppt file (or any other file) before the event starts on the room's computer.
- Each PhD student will have 12 minutes to present his/her work and the timeline for the next two years. In order for everyone to have enough time, no extra time will be allowed. Questions might follow (max 3 minutes per each student).

Program of the day

10.00-10.15 Welcome by the PhD coordinator, Prof. Leonardo Boncinelli

PhD student

Research project

10.15-10.30 Domenico Marasciulo

“Property and construction and green transition: The ‘energy performance’ of buildings”

10.30-10.45 Raffaele Berzi

“Voting systems, deceiving or not deciding: strategic behavior and outcome control in social choice theory”

10.45-11.00 Bipasha Nath

“Digital transformation in the third sector and sustainability”

11.00-11.15 Gabriel Navarro
Tilloca

“Life in the time of the energy transition rush. Analysis of energy and mobility poverty impact on the societies of four Mediterranean islands”

11.15-11.30 Domenico Villano

“Organizations and climate change adaptation: exploring the integration of geospatial intelligence and climate modeling for business resilience”

11.30-12.00 Coffee break @Libreria Campus (located in front of Building D6), Social Sciences Campus

12.00-12.15 Franziska Luzie
Dallinger

“Promoting the sustainability transformation: Alternative policy approaches from an ecological economics perspective”

12.15-12.30 Bardia Pourbahrami

“Impact of communicational AI-based and innovative technologies on trust and engagement in a hospital setting”

12.30-12.45 Lorenzo Ciulla

“Effects of natural disasters on economy, society and environment”

12.45-13.00 Giuseppe Andrea
Troiano

“Transmission mechanism of ESG risks into credit risk: An empirical analysis”

13.00-13.15 Enrida Ndreu

“Risk management in the healthcare system: insurance models or alternative models?”

13.15-13.30 Leonardo Paoli

“Exploring the complex nexus between economy, society and environment: Insights from Ecological Economics”

13.30-14.45 Light lunch @Building D6, first floor

14.45-15.00 Julien Salama

“Facing the growth dependency of the state”

15.00-15.15 Matteo Dalle Vaglie

“Assessing the economic and environmental impacts of soil salinization: Towards sustainable development strategies”

15.15-15.30 Alessio Magnolfi

“The use of chatbots for learning”

15.30-15.45 Riccardo de Angeli

“Socio-economic and environmental consequences of land use change: Exploring institutional response dynamics”
